CORE OFFERINGS:

Staging Raw Materials & Ingredients

We understand manufacturers, you don't have the space or the time or store and handle your raw materials and ingredients. Let Porter supply your plant and you focus on production

Finished Goods Order Fulfillment & Distribution

Product piling up at the end of the production line? Slowing down production? Get those finished goods out of your plant and offsite so they can be distributed to your customers. Our B2B and DTC fulfillment organization can handle fast moving order types. We can handle big, bulky form factors like Drums, IBC's, Bags to replenish distributors and retailers or pick, pack, and ship fast moving goods

Diverse Industries Served

Porter is not a one-trick 3PL who concentrates in only one industry. We work with manufacturers, retailers, and direct sellers across the many industries, including Consumer Products, Food & Beverage, and HAZMAT Chemical.

Certified, Audited, and Compliant

Food Grade & GMP certified warehouses in Atlanta as well as Temperature-Controlled warehousing at your service. Sub-par handling and storage of your product can result in damage to your brand and your business. Federal Regulation violations can disrupt your supply chain and expose you to heavy penalties.

Choosing Porter as your 3PL partner safeguards against costly fines and demonstrates commitment to your customers and your reputation

CASE IN POINT

Global Beverage Manufacturer, Distributor & Bottler Relies on Porter Logistics 3PL Warehousing for Manufacturers in Atlanta to Keep Plant Supplied with Raw Ingredients and Distribute Finished Product

The Challenge

A multi-national food & beverage manufacturer, distributor, and bottler with operations across the Globe desperately needed a one-stop warehouse in Atlanta that could handle raw ingredients, including Hazardous ingredients, that were being imported from Asia & Europe to keep it's plant supplied and producing. Porter needed to execute daily shuttles, handle imports, and also relabel core ingredients for batch & lot tracking. Porter also received finished goods from the plant need and needed to fulfillment customer orders with daily LTL & FTL shipments. The client also needed to consolidate three underperforming 3PL's in it's network under one roof at Porter Logistics

How we Helped

To proactively address these issues, Porter Logistics sent a project manager out to the company's current industrial space. Working with the Senior Director and Senior Operations Manager running the plant, Porter defined the scope and requirements. In a quick negotiation, Porter allocated 10,000 pallet spaces for the client and set up teams responsible for inbounding, relabeling, and outbound order fulfillment to this client's customers. Porter also passed strict internal quality inspections in addition to maintaining it's A+ AIB GMP scores certifying the quality of it's food grade programs.

Results

The client is thrilled with Porter Logistics performance (offering to serve as a reference for future clients and investors. Porter Logistics is integral to their ability to hit growth targets, expanding their scale seamlessly with existing operations. Porter Logistics technology platform allowed the client to have a clear picture of what inventory was in the Porter Food Grade warehouse in Atlanta at any one time and enabled seamless inbound and outbound requests with minimal manual work. Porter Logistics is proud to still count them as a client today.

"Without Porter Logistics, we would have absolutely been unable to hit keep our plant supplied & finished goods distributed" - Senior Ops Manager
